Headlining the night: Adam Fields

Originally from London and now based in Amsterdam, Adam brings fast-paced British humour, spontaneous crowd work and a brilliantly animated stage presence. A veteran of the European comedy circuit, he turns everyday observations into sharp punchlines, unexpected characters and the kind of controlled chaos that keeps audiences guessing.

With local support from: Teddy Hall

Swiss-based comedian Teddy's comedy veers from the profound to the inane, always with an empathetic and optimistic view on life. His shows have sold out across Europe, and in 2025 his show SLAYBOY won Best Stand Up Comedy at Reykjavik Fringe Festival. He has become a driving force in the Swiss comedy scene as a host, producer and performer, and currently serves as vice-chair of The Beast, Basel's first comedy club.
